PEERY-KNISELY TO ORGANIZE A TEAM

(By Peery)

Next week the Peery-Kniseley basketball team will start practice. The boys have arranged to use the Third ward amusement hall and, after a week's practice will take on all the local ward teams and will probably play the Weber academy and the Ogden high school. The team will be captained by Harry Greenwell, the well-known pitcher of the Peery-Kniseley baseball team. He is one of the best centers in the city and with White, a former L. D. S. star of Salt Lake, will have an aggregation that should beat everything in the city. Now that the Peery-Kniseley and New-Rip companies have organized basketball teams, some of the other local firms should put out teams and form a league and use the armory for the

J. McGuire was found guilty of petit larceny and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or to serve 10 days in jail. He was arrested Thursday by Sergeant H. C. Peterson and Chauffeur Earl Wiggins at 359 Twenty-fourth street. According to the testimony of Mr. Whipple, proprietor of the house where the arrest was made, McGuire took a silver dollar from a bureau in one of the rooms. This was denied by the defendant, who claimed he found the money on the floor.

John Moraltis was arraigned on the charge of securing money by fraudulent representation and his preliminary hearing was set for December 13. He is alleged to have secured $200 from four of his fellow countrymen, Greeks, by representing that he was an officer of a bank in Cache valley and agreed to get the positions as sheepherders for a fee of $50 each. They gave him the money, it is said, and he disappeared. He was later caught in Salt Lake and returned to Ogden, by Deputy Sheriff George Leatham.

WORKING ON A STACK WHICH IS TO BE 180 FEET HIGH

Four gangs of masons are at work on a smokestack 180 feet high, the foundation for which is now being placed by the Ashton Firebrick and Tile company, on its land between Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth streets, on Jefferson avenue.

The stack is to contain 350,000 bricks and is to be one of two similar chimneys to form part of the new plant being constructed, which will include seven kilns connected by underground flue and a continuous kiln or tunnel 342 feet long. When completed, this will be the second largest brick plant in the intermountain country.

Four feet of solid brick, laid in lime mortar, 28 feet square, is to serve as a foundation for the big chimney the flue of which will be nine feet in diameter. Altogether 3,000,000 bricks are to enter into the improvements, which are to be finished in time for next year's spring campaign.

A glazing kiln, which is something new, is to be constructed, and a large building for new presses is to be erected. There is to be a room devoted to shower baths, with wash bowls and lockers, where the workmen can change. A laundry, also, is to be installed for workmen's clothing.

The company is to specialize on shale brick, the shale to be imported from Weber canyon.

A large force of men will be employed when the plant is completed.

ANOTHER MIX-UP IN WHICH HARCOMBE IS INVOLVED

Reporting on his administration as assignee in the matter of the assignment of the Utah Canning Company, George Ford claims that he paid certain monies to W. W. Harcombe as attorney for him. He states in his report that Harcombe was associated with the law firm of Boyd, DeVine & Eccles and that he was introduced to him by the members of the firm. He also states that the notice to creditors, which was duly published, were signed by the law firm and W. W. Harcombe. Mr. Ford states that all settlements made with creditors were paid over to Harcombe personally.

The assignment of the drug company was made in April, 1913, and Ford was appointed assignee, according to his report. He says that he filed an inventory and published notice of the assignment for the benefit of the creditors and that finally the business was sold to J. M. Misch for $3100. The assignee further states that he signed a petition for an order to pay expenses and dividends and that he supposed it was properly presented to the court by Harcombe, and that in June, 1914, the attorney presented to him what was purported to be an order for the distribution of $59 for taxes and $89.65 to pay the account of C. T. Rowan, and that the money was turned over to Harcombe. The assignee also states that he made final distribution according to a purported order and that he knew nothing about the wrongful use of the money until December 9 of this year, when he understood that the claim of C. T. Rowan had not been allowed. Mr. Ford states that the check for $89.65 was made to Mr. Rowan.

Hearing on the report will be had in January, when the transactions connected with the affair will be explained. The law firm of Boyd, DeVine & Eccles knew nothing of the alleged transactions of Harcombe in the case.

STAR OF BETHLEHEM IS TO BE SUBJECT OF SERMONS

The Star of Bethlehem has ever been one of the most fascinating studies in the Bible. Astronomers and Biblical students alike have found it an object of never-ending interest, for the records of many nations refer to it, and those who have not believed in the miracles have had their theories regarding that wondrous light. As the records of the past are dug up and interpreted, the problem becomes more interesting to doubter and believer alike.

The story of the nations, regarding the Star of Bethlehem that guided the magi to the infant Christ, will be the theme of the next two Sunday night sermons in First Presbyterian church.

MARTIN SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT

Involved in this motion for a new trial than the question with respect to these letters and their admissibility, but it seems to me unless the court is going to take the position that, as I said before, we cannot have any progress, then that these letters are as sufficiently identified as modern jurisprudence at least ought to demand. The court, it seems to me, should take into consideration that there has developed in the last few years a new science, the science of identification by handwriting, and that taking that into consideration these letters are sufficiently identified to justify their admission in evidence. I could perhaps at greater length give the reasons which have actuated me, but I do not think it is necessary, and it may be understood that the motion for a new trial be, and it is hereby denied. Mr. Willis—I think the new statute gives exception to everything excepting construction.

The Court—Yes, I think so.

Mr. Willis—In this connection, I want to ask that your Honor enter an order pertaining to the transcription of the testimony in this case so we may perfect our appeal within the very short time that is given by the statute.

The Court—Yes, it may be so ordered.

The Court—And I will, of course, sign a certificate of probable cause.
